The Kedushah is recited only with a minyan.

In this ancient prayer, composed by Jewish mystics, we imitate the angelic glorification of God. Although it appears in several versions, the Kedushah of the Amidah always contains three biblical quotations: “Holy, holy, holy” (Isaiah 6:3), “Praised is Adonai’s glory wherever God dwells” (Ezekiel 3:12), and “Adonai will reign forever” (Psalm 146:10). The liturgy surrounding these verses varies, being more elaborate and expansive on Shabbat and festivals than on weekdays. Because the Kedushah is a call-and-response, it is appropriately recited only with a minyan.

HOLY. These are the words that Isaiah heard the angels utter during the profound experience that initiated his prophetic calling (6:3). Holiness is God's essential quality, a quality of which humans can partake when dedicated to God and when acting in imitation of God's mercy and love.

THE WHOLE WORLD IS FILLED WITH GOD'S GLORY. There are two contrasting themes in the Kedushah: God is to be found everywhere, and God is hidden from us. The paradox of the religious life is that at times we feel a divine presence close at hand and at other times God’s absence is terribly palpable.

SERAFIM. On the variety of angelic forms, see page 153.

PRAISED IS ADONAI’S GLORY WHEREVER GOD DWELLS. Ezekiel heard this cry as he was being carried away by a wind, which transported him to preach to his fellow exiles in Babylonia (3:12).
