We are seated.

The three paragraphs that follow are a pastiche of stanzas taken from a variety of different piyyutim. All traditional mahzorim arrange them as here.

We believe this piyyut is 1500 years old, having been composed by one of the earliest liturgical poets, Yannai, who lived in the